

The fantastical image is a Photoshop composite of two photos. The first photo is of the Century College bridge, the second of the Century bridge walkway.

inspirations for the new typeface were Abcdefghij and Bcdefghijk. I was in a "medieval mood," just coming off my gargoyle mood board project.

Creative Works

The gargoyle mood board is rich in imagery, and the relief aspect adds depth and illusion.

The complimentary color composition was created by cutting numerous pieces of red and green tonal variations from magazines.

The branded coffee cup was created using Adobe Dimension and is part of a logo design and branding project.
